To Miss Cora A. Coffin.

CHILDHOODS HAPPY DAYS.

Ballad

WORDS BY MRS A. L. R. DUFOUR. MUSIC BY

SOLON NOURSE.

Author of "Last words of Emmet". and, "I had a dream just now Mother."

Piano 25 cts net. Guitar 25cts net.

Published by W.C. PETERS & SONS. Cincinnati.

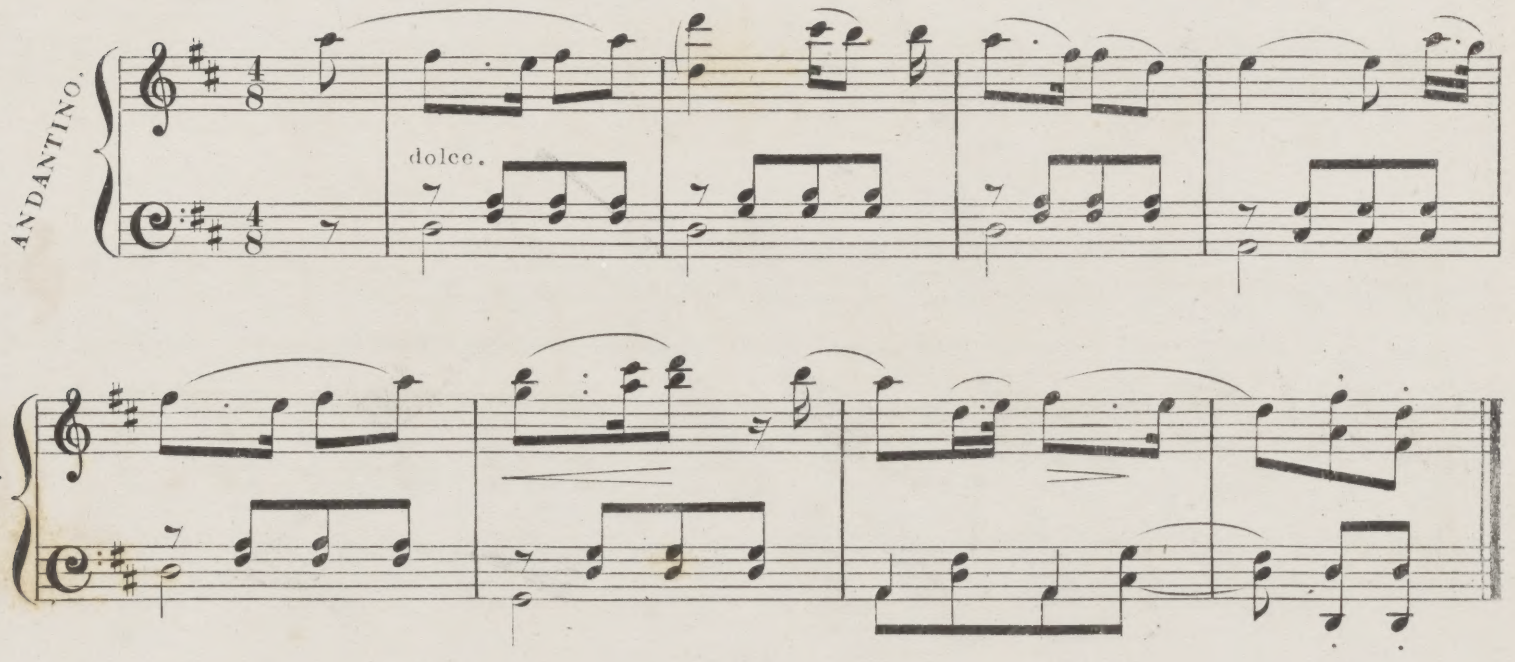
St Louis. BALMER & WEBER. HOLBROOK & LONG. Cleveland. HORACE WATERS. New York.

CHILDHOODS HAPPY DAYS.

WORDS BY MRS: A.L.RUTER DUFOUR. MUSIC BY SOLON NOURSE.



Entered according to Act of Congress in the year1854by W.C.Peters & Sons in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Ohio.

full of glad - some lays: I'm think - ing of that joy - ous time, When sitting by your side, You sweet - ly smil'd and blest'd your child, With all a parent's pride.

3.d v.se. Oh I re - mem - ber well, Mother, In twi - lights gen - tle hour; How

Those days were ve - ry bright, Mother, And now they seem to me, Like soft the sum - mer bree - zes were With - - in our gar - den bow'r. And fair enchant-ed isles a - far, With - in a desert sea. For how when bright stars beam'd so soft, From the deep blue vault, at e'en, With then my heart had known no care, My eyes had wept no tears Nor glow - ing cheek you'd sweet - ly speak Of our bright home in heav'n.

had a cloud pass'd o'er my brow, Thro' all my bliss - ful years.